More presentations will be available beginning October on the second Tuesday of the Month.

April 13th Presentation

Chad Rabinovitz was our presenter on April 13th. He explained his new concept of “What’s in the Box” when you receive a box of items that are then used with a Zoom presentation and allow for audience participation.

“The Bloomington Playwrights Project is the only professional theatre in the entire state of Indiana focused solely on new plays. What you see at BPP, you can’t see anywhere else in the world.

We plan to return to regular meetings at the American Legion in the Fall.

Men's Breakfast

Our group is growing. Everyone has completed their vaccinations.

We'd love to have you join us!

Every Thursday at 9 AM in Bedrāk Café.

Spirits Group

March 14th

Spirits Group members enjoyed a nice April evening at Sahms at the Pointe. Great conversation, food and drink were enjoyed by all.

Canasta Group

4-10-21

Hosted by Susan Montgomery

After Canasta Fun!

A wild time was had by all at Susan and John's for Canasta in April. After being tied up at home for a year, my first table of four laughed loudly and all talked at the same time! Later that afternoon, four of us headed off to meet John at the Port Hole Inn for supper, which should have taken a few minutes. Our hostess, Susan, had another commitment and could not join us.

Only, I made a mistake. As soon as we made the first wrong turn, I should have said something. I thought maybe there was a cut-through on some other road to the restaurant. By the time I realized I was the only one with even a vague sense of direction it was too late and we toured Monroe County for an hour while John patiently waited for us (Jerry, Terry, Susie and myself).

When I noted to the other three that we just passed a sign, "Martinsville 4 Miles", they admitted we were off-course. Once we bounced around 100 more country curves, we had a great time at the diner. We learned about the owners from John, and were treated to a delicious meal by Jerry. Now that I have cast aspersions on my fellow travelers' sense of direction, they probably won't let me get lost with them again.
